Soothe My Soul

Soothe my soul, soul-soother,
It's night time again.
And the last bird has flown home,
And I cannot find a friend.

I know you know the truth,
And the truth resides with you,
And everything you do is right,
But I do not like the night.
I just want to understand...
I just want to see the plan.

Sometimes I feel you near me,
And I know that you are mine.
Other times I cannot feel you,
And I fear my eyes are blind, so please...

chorus

I know you love me,
And I sing praises to you.
I know you'd die for me,
But would I lay this life down for you?
Would I lay this life down for you?
